

Teaching through the Standards in your Music Room:

National Core Arts Standards

California VAPA Standards

English Language Arts Common Core Standards

with Wendy Barden

respected music educator, national clinician, and author with Neil A. Kjos Music Company

July 11 – 12, 2017 (8:30 am – 5:00 pm)

Plan to arrive 8:00 – 8:20 am

Workshop Location: Holiday Inn Irvine Spectrum

23131 Lake Center Drive, Lake Forest, CA
949-455-7000 (hotel phone)

Join your colleagues and Wendy Barden to learn and think collaboratively!

- What are the new national and VAPA standards all about?
- What are meaningful, realistic ways to implement the new music standards?
- How might ELA standards be implemented in a music classroom... and still keep the focus on making music?

Take away many, many practical ideas to get student learning in your music room off to a great start this fall!

$270 registration fee includes all materials, breaks, and lunch

For information and to register visit <http://seguecp.com>

One graduate-level professional development credit is available from University of North Dakota (letter grade) for successful completion of the course. The additional cost for the credit is $50, payable to the University of North Dakota. All work required for credit will be completed during the course. More information is available by contacting wbarden@seguecp.com.

SEGUE CONSULTING PARTNERS

Working side by side with educators to maximize student learning